I trust this message finds you in good spirits. As we commemorate Black History Month, we extend a warm invitation to you for a special virtual event aimed at acknowledging and discussing the impactful individuals within the Black community who have inspired us in our workplace and careers.

This event is not only an opportunity to celebrate the achievements of notable figures but also a chance to recognize and value the unique experiences of each participant in shaping their professional journey.

During our discussion, we encourage you to reflect on the following questions:

1. Who in the Black community has been a source of inspiration for you in your workplace and career?
2. What specific qualities or accomplishments of these individuals have left a lasting impact on you?
3. How has your individual experience contributed to the diversity and inclusivity of our professional environment?

We believe that by sharing our stories and perspectives, we can create a richer and more supportive work atmosphere. Your voice and experiences are integral to this conversation, and we look forward to hearing your insights.

Below is the zoom link for this event. Hope to see you there!

Adam Bellis is inviting you to a scheduled Zoom meeting.
