

Honoring the uniqueness in yourself!

By: 6th-8th grade
@ Standifer Gap

Be Unique; Be You!

"You deserve respect."
- 7th grader

"You are one of a kind and don't forget it. You are born for this. You are the best version of yourself. Don't let anyone tell you that you are not unique cause of your differences."
- 8th grader

---

"It does not matter if the people at school like you, God does that's all you need."
- 6th grader

---

"Most people target others because they are different. They are just jealous of you."
- 7th grader

"Never give up no matter how much you get bullied. Be the person you want to be."
- 6th grader

"Stay unique."
- 6th grader

"We all have our own special talent/uniqueness. You shouldn't listen to what others say if all it does is let you down. Listen to people who put you up in life."
- 7th grader

"Never let your uniqueness be subdued by others. Only you should control it." - 6th grader

"Uniqueness makes you the way you are."
- 6th grader

"Gender, race, size, or character doesn't define who you are, and your differences make you awesome. If the world were all the same, it would be boring. Be proud of who you are and don't listen to those who have no self-confidence."
- 8th grader

"It's ok to be different, it's not ok to be ashamed that you are different."
- 7th grader

"If people are criticizing you for your uniqueness, it might be because they don't realize they are unique."
- 6th grader

"You do you, God made you and you aren't a mistake."
- 7th grader

"Uniqueness is what makes the world interesting."
- 6th grader

"If someone is making fun of you because of something you can't control they are just trying to make you feel bad, look for the good difference in yourself and be proud of it."
- 8th grader

2022-2023
School Year

