To Whom This May Concern,

My name is Evie Nogales Baker and I am writing this letter of reference to share my support for Claire Ashcraft.

I have had the pleasure of teaching Claire at Southern Adventist University School of Social Work for the last year and a half.

During my interactions with Ms. Ashcraft I have experienced an individual who is organized, timely, works hard, and carries themselves in a polite, thoughtful, and respectable manner. In addition, Claire is a wonderful contributor in our class discussions. She is an excellent critical thinker who continually expresses a desire to understand how to apply theory to practice. Ms. Ashcraft is our current president for our department Social Work Club. Within this role, Ms. Ashcraft has demonstrated skills as a leader through their commitment, decision making, accountability, and creativity.

Ms. Ashcraft consistently maintains a professional, positive attitude even when stressors in her life become challenging. I have no doubt Claire has chosen the right profession and I look forward to seeing her influence as a professional social worker in the future.

I have no reservations that Ms. Ashcraft has chosen the right profession and I look forward to seeing her influence in the future as a social work practitioner.

If you have any questions or requests do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Evie", followed by a horizontal line.
