

Claire Ashcraft

Dr. Madrigal

SOCW-664-A

3-9-22

Disorder Write-up

1. The boy and his mother represent Conduct disorder. Symptoms include cruelty to animals, bullying, threatening and intimidating others, initiating physical fights, and cruelty to people.
2. The girl who went to therapy by herself represents Oppositional-Defiant Disorder. Symptoms include losing her temper often, easily annoyed, often angry, argues with authority, often defies rules or people, deliberately annoys others, and spitefully.
3. The girl and her mother represent Disruptive Mood Dysregulation Disorder. Symptoms include recurrent temper outbursts that happen 3 or more times per week. Client is also persistently angry and agitated.