

Agenda

Independent Living Group: Power of Knowledge: 1/22/20

Objective: The objective is to educate and inspire the group on the importance on having knowledge for live.

Activity: In order to capture the group's interest, it will be started with a riddle. The Green Glass Door Riddle will be used.

Discussion: The group will discuss what they needed to know in order to answer the riddle. This will be connected to the power of knowledge for adults.

Assessment: The group will fill out an assessment of their knowledge on community resources.

Handout: Community Resources and Hotlines

Discussion: The group will discuss the community resources listed in the assessment and handout.

Handout: Foster Children Bill of Rights

Discussion: Discuss the importance of knowing the rights individuals have as foster children.

Homework: Write down the address and phone number for at least three community entities.