

09/04/2019: I demonstrated professional demeanor in behavior, appearance and oral communication by arriving to practicum on time and dressing appropriately. This competency was further demonstrated when participating in home studies with my field instructor. It was through this experience that I presented myself as a learner, paying close attention to how my field instructor interacted with each client and afterwards asked questions regarding my own interactions with them, as well as tips I could incorporate to improve.