

1) Please indicate on a scale of 1-5, with 1 being the lowest (not easy at all) and 5 being the highest (very easy), how easy was it to make your initial/first appointment with Disability Access?

28 responses

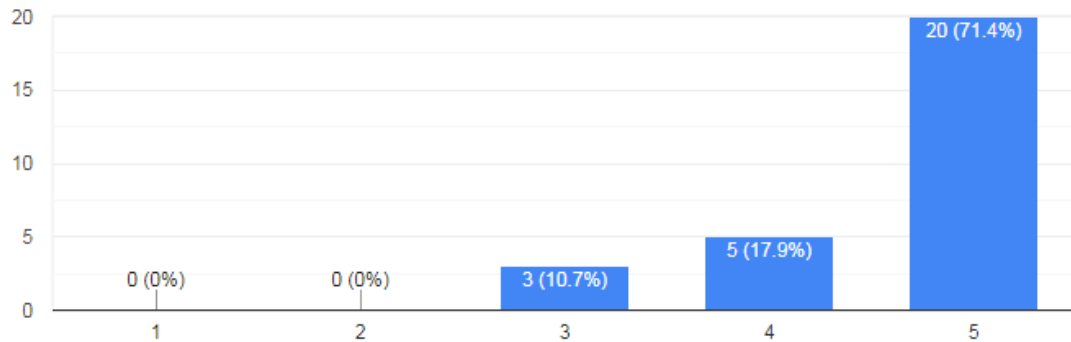

2) Please indicate on a scale of 1-5 with 1 being the lowest (not helpful at all) and 5 being the highest (very helpful), how helpful/useful was your initial/first appointment for you?

28 responses

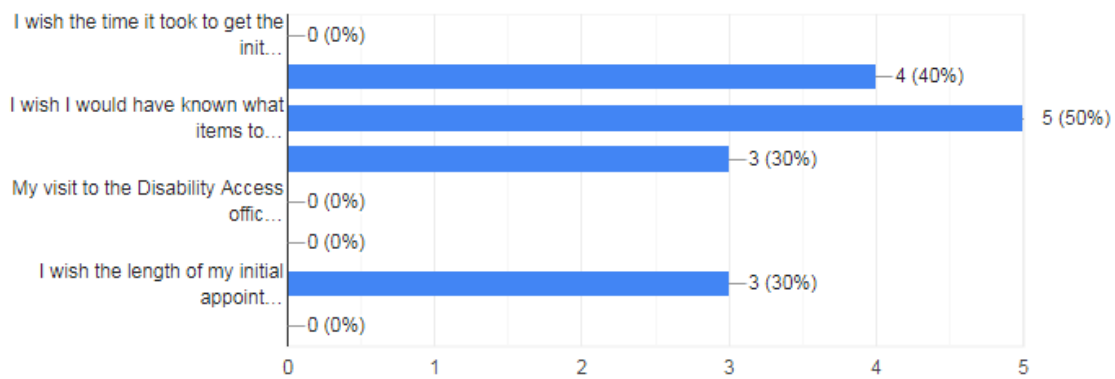

4) Please indicate on a scale of 1-5, with 1 being the lowest (Not likely at all) and 5 being the highest (very likely) how likely would you be to recommend our services to someone else?

28 responses

3) Please check all that apply to show us the areas where you think we can improve our intake process:

10 responses

5) Please use the box provided below to share any other feedback that you have regarding getting started with services from Disability Access.

7 responses

Nick is great. He always knows what to say and is so easy going. Every issue I've had he's helped me get through. He never tells me what to do to fix things, but he gives me different perspectives and ways to think about my situations. I always feel better after our appointments and look forward to the next ones. He's a great addition to the DSC counseling team!

Was simple and reassuring

I loved meeting with Andrea, she understood where I was coming from in every issue I had. Also, helped me realize I have a disability and got the materials I needed to help me be successful in my final college count down.

I had the best experience. It felt very sincere and personal, thank you so so much.

Andrea was amazing and so helpful! She was very welcoming

Thank you for your support. I love how prepared she was. I did not know we had such a service. Thank you for everything !

The people are nice and helpful.